News From Your Library

For some reason, about 60 TDS domain emails bounced our newsletter last week, (and also we forgot to change the date at the top!) so we are going to repeat a few items of last week's news, with updates. Apologies to those who have read them. If you missed the previous newsletters, you can find them on our website. Check your "social" or "promotions" email folders. It helps to add the newsletter@warner.lib.nh.us address to your contacts.

Library Summer Programs for all ages

Summer Programs for Adults and Teens! We have created some fun challenges and "missions" for you, based on local places and facts - and reading, of course. All safely distanced but getting you out of your normal routine. Create your own account and log in at <https://pillsburyfree.readsquared.com> to sign up for Missions, track your progress, win points towards "badges", and be entered in a prize drawing at the end of summer. Or ask for a paper copy. Starts July 13. Children's K-6 Readsquared activity log and mission options coming soon. Preschool options (1000 books before Kindergarten) are available now.

Visit our Website for information about free online books, magazines and more!

Tech Tips

If the title you want is not listed in the library Catalog, or the library copy is checked out...

Option 1. Look at the top of the catalog screen to see if it is available as an ebook or audiobook from nh.overdrive.com (image below) and click on the results to see the status and borrow or hold.

Option 2. To find a "you may also like" suggestion, click on EBSCO resources (either on the library home page or on the left side of the catalog page). You will need to type in your library card #. Select "Novelist" (or Novelist Plus to include nonfiction).

Type in the title you originally wanted, and there will be "Read-alikes" listed on the left side.

Option 3. Place a hold on the title and wait for it to be available

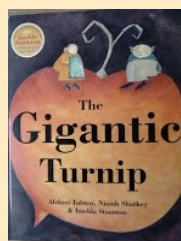

Option 4. Wait for InterLibrary Loan to restart! We will let you know!
